

ALP ANNUAL MEETING
TUESDAY, JUNE 2, 2009, 12:00 NOON TO 2:00 PM
MAIN DINING ROOM, SEABURY
BLOOMFIELD, CT

Keynote Speaker : Richard Sugarman
Founder and President, The Connecticut Forum

Richard Sugarman, Founder and President of The Connecticut Forum, will be the speaker at the Annual Meeting on Tuesday, June 2, 2009 to be held again at noon in the main dining room at Seabury.

The Connecticut Forum, a non-profit organization, was begun by Mr. Sugarman in 1992. Since then, it has become a staple in Greater Hartford. Each year it has presented four stimulating programs at the Bushnell in Hartford. Programs consist of nationally respected panelists who discuss a variety of timely and important topics before audiences averaging 2700 people.

Tapes of The Connecticut Forum programs also have been presented at ALP's very popular course by the same name, ably facilitated by Bill Olds, and given in both the fall and spring terms for the past several years. Each showing of a program is followed by a spirited discussion stimulated by the comments of the Forum's panelists.

Mr. Sugarman will speak about the many faceted work of The Connecticut Forum, including the challenges of planning and organizing such high profile programs. His talk will be punctuated with anecdotes about past programs and panelists.

Reservations Required!

The Annual Meeting will begin at 12 noon at a cost of $ 6.00 with a lunch featuring roasted sliced boneless breast of chicken over greens garnished with crumbled bleu cheese, tomatoes, cucumber slices and roasted red peppers, accompanied with bread sticks and flatbreads . Money for lunch will be collected at the door, but please come with exact change if possible. To make your reservation for lunch please call the office, 570-9079, before May 22 and leave a message if no one is there. (Vegetarian salads are available with roasted tofu in place of the chicken, but you must specifically request a vegetarian meal when you call the office to make your reservation.) Members without a reservation may not be able to be seated for lunch, but may attend the business meeting and listen to the speaker .

Parking!

Because there will not be enough parking places at Seabury to accommodate all the attendees at the Annual Meeting, we must all park at the Beth Hillel Synagogue. This parking lot is next to Seabury, just west on Wintonbury Avenue. A Seabury shuttle will be available beginning at 11:30AM to bring you to Seabury, and also return you there following the meeting. This is the same arrangement that worked so well at our Member Preview Meeting in January. NO PARKING WILL BE AVAILABLE AT SEABURY FOR THIS EVENT, UNLESS YOU HAVE A HANDICAPPED PERMIT.

GENEROUS FRIENDS

We extend enormous gratitude to the following people for their donations to ALP:

Joyce Carleton
Clarence Coleridge
Sally Emmel
Sara Foster

Marion Kelliher
Allen Melville
Shirley Morrison

Frances Moulton
Bill Olds
Joan Sereda

Coming Attractions!

Fall Course Preview Meeting. Our next ALP meeting will take place on September 9 at 9:30AM to preview the courses that will be offered in the fall. Please mark your calendars now!

In addition to old favorites such as Short Stories, Opera, The Connecticut Forum, etc., our Curriculum Committee is planning interesting new seminars such as Russia and the Czars, and visits to the Noah Webster House and the CRRA recycling center.

We were all so disappointed when the Winter Academy on climate change and energy was snowed out last January, but, happily, it will be expanded and offered as a new seminar this fall.

Look for your next issue of the ALP-Horn around mid-August or check out our website, www.uconnalp.org.

Have a great summer!

THE ANNUAL MEETING IS VERY IMPORTANT

At this meeting ALP recognizes those members whose contributions make ALP a success, ALP leaders for the following year are elected, and the budget is approved.

This year we are planning a very special event. We are holding a poetry contest which is open to all ALP members. The three winners of the contest will be honored at the Annual Meeting and will read their poems to us. Please see the guidelines below for the deadline on submitting entries and more details about this contest.

Please be sure to attend this Annual Meeting. Make your reservation today!

ALP 2009 Poetry Contest Guidelines

You may submit up to three poems, no longer than 50 lines. The deadline for submission is May 5. Envelopes postmarked later will not be entered. One poem by each contestant will be selected to be printed in a brochure that will be distributed at the Annual Meeting.

To enter, please mail two copies of each poem to the ALP office. One of the copies should have contact information (name, address, phone number and email address if possible) in the upper right hand corner. The other copy should have no contact information - it should just have the poem with no other information on the page.

The judge for this contest is Alexandrina Sergio, a published Connecticut poet, whose poems have recently appeared or are forthcoming in Long River Run, Caduceus, Connecticut River Review, Encore and other anthologies. She is not affiliated with ALP.

Three winning poems will be selected to be read by each author at the ALP Annual Meeting on June 2, 2009.
