

WALTER W. WOODWARD TO SPEAK AT FALL PREVIEW MEETING

Walter W. Woodward, Ph.D., will be the featured speaker at ALP's Fall Preview Meeting September 7 from 9:15 am to noon in Heritage Hall at Seabury. His topic will be Leaving Connecticut, Shaping America. Between 1780 and 1830, tens of thousands of Connecticut people left our state to "begin the world anew" in places like Pennsylvania, Vermont, western New York, and especially, the Connecticut Reserve of what is now Ohio. In the process, they took the culture of their home state with them, and gave the nation a strong and indelible Connecticut. Dr. Woodward will discuss reasons behind Connecticut's massive outmigration, the distinctive attributes of the people who chose to leave, and the very serious concerns their removal raised for those they left behind.

Walter Woodward, Ph.D.

Dr. Woodward is Assistant Professor of history at the University of Connecticut. He is also the Connecticut State Historian, and in that capacity he is a resource to media outlets and serves on numerous state commissions on history, culture and tourism. He works with historical museums and historical societies to promote the study and appreciation of Connecticut history.

Dr. Woodward studied at the University of Florida and Cleveland University, and he received a Ph.D. with Distinction at the University of Connecticut. Dr. Woodward has written articles for many historical publications, the book Sam Houston: for Texas and the Union, and, most recently Prospero's America: John Winthrop, Jr., Alchemy, and the Creation of New England's Culture, 1606-1676.

As usual for preview meetings, you must park at the Beth Hillel parking lot, and take the Seabury bus (it runs from 8:45 to 10:00) to the front entrance. At Heritage Hall you will be able to visit with the presenters at tables there and learn about the seminars that interest you. There will be a coffee break at 10 am, and at 10:30 am we will reassemble for a brief business meeting and Dr. Woodward's presentation. The meeting will adjourn at noon and the Seabury bus will run until 12:30 to return you to the synagogue parking.

SPREAD THE WORD—BRING A FRIEND TO THE MEETING

Do you love ALP and what it offers? Do you want it to live long and prosper? Bring a friend with you to the meeting, someone who may not have heard of ALP; most of us would not have heard of ALP were it not for the kindness of a friend, who brought us.

NEW TREASURER

We were saddened by the death of our Treasurer, Malcolm Millar, on June 20, 2011. At the June meeting of the Advisory Board Janet Murphy, who has been serving on the Membership Committee, was appointed to replace him. We are grateful to Janet for being willing to step into the position.

Save The Date

*All ALP members are invited to the 2nd Annual "Getting to Know You" reception on Wednesday, October 19, 2011
at Seabury's Heritage Hall 3-4:00 pm
This will be a great opportunity to get to know each other over wine and cheese.*

*RSVP 860-570-9079 by October 5
with name and number attending.*

ATTENTION SNOWBIRDS

If you know you will miss some ALP courses during your warm-climate winter sojourns, don't forget that we'll still have a number of courses that will start in April and May. Don't hesitate to register for the whole year, so that you can enjoy several exciting lectures and courses in April and May when you return from the sunny southland.

HELP NEEDED: Someone who has a little experience working with a publishing software program to assist the Communications Committee with page layout for newspaper ads placed twice a year. Contact Communications Committee Co-Chair, Betty Breen, bettybreen@sbcglobal.net.

DISCOVER THE CONVENIENCES OF THE ALP WEBSITE

Have you checked our web site lately? It's www.uconnalp.org. You will find it helpful, informative, and easy to use, and it just keeps getting better.

Using the green menu on the left side of the home page, you can see all the courses, print the ALP-Horn, print a registration form to complete and mail with your check, and create and print your personal calendar. Then on November 21 Dr. Pamela Taxel will speak on Osteoporosis in Older People. Please note that the last session does not follow the first two consecutively.

FS-6. WRITING YOUR MEMOIRS

Leta Marks, Presenter. Tuesdays, Oct. 4, 11, 18, 25. 1-3 pm.

Write and share your stories with a friendly writers' group. Each week we write short memoirs, bring them to the group to read, and delight in hearing one another. You too can come and participate in writing, talking about good writing, and giving/receiving positive, constructive conversation about your piece so we all feel energized to write more.

FS-7. MOVIE BUFFS

James Hanley, Presenter. Thursdays, Oct. 6; Nov. 3; Dec. 1, 10:30 am-noon.

Participants view films at Cinestudio on the campus of Trinity College or elsewhere, at a time of their choosing, and then discuss them in class at Seabury with the knowledgeable director of Cinestudio.

FS-8. CREATIVE WRITING

Dorothy Sterpka, Presenter. Thursdays, Oct. 6, 13, 20, 27; Nov. 3, 10. 1-3 pm.

This course, led by Dorothy Sterpka, a professor of writing at Central Connecticut State University, will focus on continuing to hone our writing skills in different modes — memoirs, fiction, poetry—by reading the works of others and by sharing the writings of each participant, followed by discussion of what has been read.

FS-9. FALL HIKES

Betty and Dick Carlson, Coordinators. Fridays, Oct. 7; Nov. 4, 18. noon.

Explorations of interesting sites in our area. Participants should be able to walk five miles over uneven terrain.

FS-10. SHORT STORIES

Carol Matzke, Coordinator. Mondays, Oct. 10; Nov. 14; Dec. 12. 1-3 pm. Limit 30.

Discussion of two short stories at each session, chosen in advance by a volunteer member of the group. Participants will also learn about the authors of the stories. A fee of $2 will be collected at the first meeting to cover any necessary mailing costs.

FS-11. ALPERS' TRAVELS

Helen Lansberg, Coordinator. Thursdays, Oct. 13, 20, 27. 10 am-noon.

This series consists of three travel descriptions: On Oct. 13 Peter Cruikshank will describe a trip on the Silk Road across China and into Pakistan; On Oct. 20 David Budington will describe a trip to Ireland, where he hiked the Kerry Way and toured various ancient religious sites; and on Oct. 27 Cecilia Mickey will describe a visit to Nepal, where she visited her daughter, who is living as a Buddhist monk high up in the mountains.

FS-12. FOR ART'S SAKE

Ruthanne Hartzheim, Presenter. Wednesdays, Oct. 19, 26; Nov. 2, 9. 10 am-noon.

Studio work in 2-dimensional art using various mediums of your choice. Class time will be used to introduce new techniques and new mediums and perhaps applying these techniques to your own individual work. Class critiques will be included at the end of each session.

FS-13. GENETICS 101 FOR THE NON-SCIENTIST

June Johnson, Presenter. Mondays, Nov. 7, 14, 21. 10 am-noon. Limit 20.

A basic course for people who are unfamiliar with the genetic revolution which many scientists believe is equal to or greater than the Copernican revolution. Classes will cover surfacing genetic issues, cell structure, genes, DNA structure and replication, and an ethical issue (Session 1); the role of genetics in several common diseases, dominant and recessive genes, pedigrees, genetic testing, and an ethical issue (Session 2); and stem cells, cloning, etc. another ethical issue, and possibly a DVD (Session 3).

FS-14 THE POETRY OF ROBERT FROST

Karl Mason, Presenter. Tuesdays, Nov. 8, 15, 22, 29. 10 am-noon.

Frost said, "An educated man knows when to take a hint." So is "Stopping By the Woods" a Freudian death wish, a recollection in tranquility of a moment in the poet's past, or...? We'll read or, as Frost himself preferred, say a number of his poems, experience their power and linguistic skill and who knows perhaps agree or agree to disagree on what hints (of meaning?) or lack thereof are embedded in these words.

FS-15 A LITTLE BIT OF LIT

Ruthanne Hartzheim, Presenter. Wednesdays, Nov. 9, 16, 30; Dec. 7. 1-3:30 pm.

Two sessions on the English "intellectual" colony the Bloomsbury Group (1916 to 1941), the first featuring a lecture on the group (including Clive Bell, Virginia Wolfe, Lytton Strachey, Dora Carrington, Duncan Grant, et al.) and the second featuring the movie "Carrington"; and two sessions on the American "literary" group the Algonquin Round Table (1919-1929), the first featuring a DVD presentation on the group and the second a movie, "Dorothy Parker & the Vicious Circle."

FS-16. THE PLAY'S THE THING

Nancy Kramer, Facilitator. Thursdays, Nov. 10, 17; Dec. 8, 15. 10 am-noon.

Continuing this popular seminar, Nancy will lead participants in reading plays aloud, and discussing the lives of the authors and the ideas in the plays.

FS-17. CONNECTICUT FORUM

Bill Olds, Coordinator. Tuesdays, November 15, 22, 29. 1-3:30 pm

As in previous years, the Connecticut Forum has agreed to lend ALP some of its key DVD productions. These will include The Glorious, Mysterious Brain, with Temple Grandin, an autism advocate and the subject of an Emmy Award winning film, and Steven Pinker, author of How the Mind Works and The Blank Slate; The End of Civility, with David Gergen, Christopher Buckley, and Stephen Carter; and Our Great Education Challenge, with Joel Klein, former Chancellor of New York City Schools; and Davis Guggenheim, director of the film Waiting for Superman.

FS-18. THE CIRCUS FIRE

Helen Lansberg, Coordinator. Wednesdays, November 16, 30. 10 am-noon.

Hartford's tragic circus fire on July 5, 1946, is still fresh in many Hartford people's memories. We will review the events of that day, and its aftermath. At the first session we will view a video on the subject, and share personal experiences of the fire. At the second session Judge Henry Cohn will discuss the legal ramifications of the event.

FS-19. LOCALLY GROWN FOOD

Ann Steele, Coordinator. Mondays, Nov. 28; Dec. 5. 10 am-noon.

Rick Macsuga, from the Connecticut Department of Agriculture, will lead off with a brief history of locally grown food, detailing issues for local farmers, describing programs using locally grown foods, and the role of the Department of Agriculture in these activities. At the second session Martha Page, Director of the Hartford Food System, will focus on access to healthy foods for Hartford residents and programs to improve food security, including growing healthy food in the city. She will introduce Roger Phillips, an urban farmer and Director of the Grow Hartford program. Then retired beekeeper Bob McAllister will give a beehive demonstration and describe the life of the honeybee.

FS-20. CHAMBER MUSIC

David Buddington, Presenter. Thursdays, Dec. 1, 8, 15. 1-3 pm.

The presenter will try to enhance your enjoyment and appreciation of some of the great chamber music works, with the aid of projected musical scores. We will probably study quartets of Mozart, Beethoven, and either Hayden or Schubert (one each session). If you would like your open copies of the scores, contact the presenter.

FALL 2011 SINGLE SESSIONS

FSS-1. MEDICARE: Your Medical Care Now and in the Future.

Dr. Robert Rosson, Presenter. Monday, Sept. 19, 1-3 pm.

Dr. Rosson, a retired physician, will discuss the problems faced by seniors in obtaining quality medical care and the prospect for coming changes. A question period will follow his lecture.

FSS-2. NAVIGATING THE FUTURE: Hype, Fear, and Bad Policy Choices in the Debate over Technological Enhancements of Body and Mind

Wendell Wallach, Presenter. Tuesday, Sept. 20, 10 am-noon.

We are caught in a juggernaut of change wherein genetic engineering, mood- and character-altering drugs, nanotechnology, and research into advanced forms of artificial intelligence will redesign and redefine what it means to be human. The presenter asks how we will navigate the opportunities and perils the new technologies offer.

FSS-3. THE HARTFORD SYMPHONY PREVIEW

Maestra Carolyn Kuan, Presenter. Thursday, Sept. 22. 10-11 am.

In this one-hour program the new director of the Hartford Symphony Orchestra will speak about her inaugural season and her vision for the future, and will answer your questions.

FSS-4. OUR PLACE IN NATURE

Michael Park, Presenter. Thursday, Sept. 22, 1-3 pm.

We humans so often consider ourselves removed from the natural world. Yet, we are clearly animals, vertebrates, mammals, and primates. Here's how we classify living things and why we fall into each of those categories. Learn some things you may not have known about our similarities to and differences from some of our relatives.

FSS-5. VOTES FOR WOMEN; A History of Our Right to Vote

Laurel Clark Shire, Presenter. Tuesday, Sept. 27, 9-10:30 am.

The presenter tells the story of the 70-year movement for women's suffrage in the United States. Beginning in the 1830's, it traces women's involvement in reform campaigns, debates over citizenship, legal battles, and local, state, and federal ballot measure campaigns. All these struggles to become equal citizens before the law culminated with the passage of the 19th amendment in 1920.

FSS-6. STAYING STRONG: How Diet and Exercise Can Help You Stay Strong and Healthy As You Age

Tracey Luciani, RD, Seabury Nutritionist, Presenter. Tuesday, Sept. 27, 10:45 am-12:15 pm.

The presenter discusses needed nutrients, vitamins/minerals, proteins, organic foods, and new developments in nutrition. When we read about nutrition, what do we believe? Is it myth or fact?

FSS-7. GLOBAL ETHICS

Heidi Hadsell, Presenter. Tuesday, Sept. 27, 1:15-2:45 pm.

The presenter, who is President of the Hartford Seminary and Professor of Social Ethics, will lead a discussion of the ethical questions that arise when one considers the global economy from the point of view of different countries with varying values. Examples include China, eager to develop at the expense of the environment, and the developed countries of Northern Europe whose first priority is the environment. How do such countries work together toward a shared goal?

FSS-8. REMEMBERING AND REBUILDING A FORD MODEL A AUTOMOBILE

Dan Webb and Bill Wurts, Presenters.
Wednesday, Sept. 28, 10 am-noon.

The presenters, former United Technology engineers, have restored a number of cars. Here they give us the history of the Model A and other Ford vehicles, with photos and video of the restoration process of a Model A. We may have an on-site showing of this vehicle, with rides.

FSS-9. CONNECTICUT CONCERT OPERA

Presenters: John Wadhams and Doris Lang Kosloff. Monday, Oct. 3, 10 am-noon.

We will have a lecture and power point presentation with music from Charles Gounod's opera Faust, which is to be performed at the end of October.

FSS-10. TORIES IN THE REVOLUTION

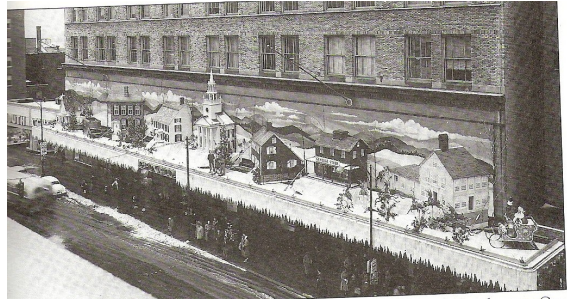

Lorne E. Rozovsky, Presenter.
Wednesday, Oct. 5, 10 am-noon.

A description of the United Empire Loyalists from a Canadian point of view. The American Revolution was not merely a revolution. It was a civil war. It is estimated that one third of all Americans did not want to break with the Crown, and did not regard themselves as traitors. One hundred thousand Americans fled the country mainly going to Canada, resulting in thousands of American families being split. Thousands of Americans and Canadians are descended from these refugees. This is their story, what happened to them and how they were treated both in the United States and in the northern colonies which some ninety years later became Canada.

FSS-11. DOWNTOWN HARTFORD: PAST AND PRESENT

Hollis Schneider, Presenter. Friday, Oct. 14, 10 am-noon.

Slides/discussion/reminiscence focused on our memories of downtown Hartford before redevelopment in the 1960's - the department stores, theaters, hotels, etc. A brief history of the area will be presented. Current revitalization of many historic and familiar landmarks will be featured. This will be followed by an exploration of the early days of radio, when WTIC was Hartford's pioneering station.

G. Fox Store at Christmas

FSS-12. WE'RE GOING TO PICK POTATOES

Irene Berman, presenter. Monday, Oct. 17, 10 am-noon.

A presentation about the Jews in Norway during and after World War II.

FSS-13. MUSICAL PRESENTATION OF THE BILL OF RIGHTS

Neely Bruce, Presenter. Saturday, Oct. 22, 10 am-noon. At Duncaster

THE BILL OF RIGHTS, the first ten amendments to the U.S. Constitution, has been set to music by Neely Bruce, drawing from the "Shape Note" singing tradition, featured in the movie "Cold Mountain." This dramatic and unusual piece will be sung by a group of singers, followed by a discussion with the composer. Scores will be available for sing-along.

Fall Single Sessions continue on Page 8

FSS-14. COMPLICITY

Bill Olds, Coordinator. Wednesday, Nov. 2, 1-3 pm.

"Complicity" is the title of a book about how the North promoted, prolonged, and profited from slavery. It is considered an eye-opener for finger-pointing northerners who like to believe that slavery in America was strictly a Southern sin to which Yankees rarely yielded. The authors are Anne Farrow, Joel Lang, and Jennifer Frank, all of whom were reporters for the Hartford Courant at the time. They will speak about how the North profited from its well-kept secret dependence on slavery, and the lucrative triangle trade of molasses, rum, and slaves that linked the North with the West Indies and Africa.

FSS-15. THE MAKING OF A STEINWAY PIANO

Ellie Caplan, Coordinator. Monday, Dec. 5, 1-3 pm.

We will see Note By Note, a feature-length documentary film that follows the creation of a Steinway concert grand — #L1037 — from forest floor to concert hall. It explores the relationship between musician and instrument, chronicles the manufacturing process, and illustrates what makes each Steinway unique in this age of mass production. The movie is based on a series of articles that ran in the New York Times in 2007. Kate Steinway, the daughter of the late Henry Z. Steinway who was the last family member to run the company founded by his great grandfather, will join our group for the movie and reminisce and answer questions after the showing. She is the Executive Director of the Connecticut Historical Society in Hartford.

FSS-16. FORTY-FOUR DAYS IN AN OPEN LIFEBOAT.

Charles Ferguson, Presenter. Tuesday, Dec. 6, 10:45-12:15 pm.

A Seabury resident, Charles Ferguson will describe how two of his great uncles, Sam and Henry Ferguson, spent 44 days in an open lifeboat after their clipper ship, "The Hornet," burned and sank in the Pacific Ocean. They navigated 4,000 miles to Hawaii. A young reporter, Mark Twain, was there at the time and scooped the world with the story.

FSS-17. USING THE INTERNET FOR MEDICAL INFORMATION

Laura Vassell, Presenter. Tuesday, Dec. 6, 1:15-2:45 pm.

The internet provides excellent sources for information relating to medical needs. This presentation will identify and describe some of the best sources and offer suggestions about how to make the best use of this resource. Your specific questions will be answered.

FSS-18. RELIGIOUS DIMENSIONS OF GRASS-ROOTS PEACEMAKING

Yehezkel Landau, Presenter. Wednesday, Dec. 14, 1-3 pm.

The presenter, a Professor at the Hartford Seminary, will discuss mediation techniques he has employed in his work in Israel/Palestine, Nigeria, Northern Ireland, and Bosnia.
