

TRANSITIONING

A Villanelle

Sharon Scull

Pandemic caused us altered state of mind
Emotions gone through very drastic change
What we've endured has truly been a grind

New goals ahead, revised paths need to find
Moving forward in new ways seems quite strange
Pandemic's caused us altered state of mind

Baby steps, like entering world of "blind"
Not sure how, but know we must rearrange
What we've endured has truly been a grind

Life in pandemic narrowly defined
Life this year encompassed quite narrow range
Pandemic's caused us altered state of mind

Social life? We left that world far behind
How to procede? In ways I feel deranged
What we've endured has truly been a grind

Moving forward? Standing back? In a bind
Should be anxious now to make this exchange
Pandemic's caused us altered state of mind
What we've endured has truly been a grind
